2025 Team Awards Checklist
Future Conservationist Awards

Before writing your proposal:

o Read about the Future Conservationist Awards – CLP Website
o Watch the following videos: Applicant Eligibility Requirements and What CLP funds cannot be used for? that can be found on the CLP YouTube Channel.
o If not already, register onto the online portal – Online portal o Select the Award type you are eligible for o Download and Read the guidelines – found on the online portal or the CLP Website o If you have questions about the award, please join our live Q&A session on August 12th. Details of this session will be available through the CLP Website and social media channels.
o If you have questions, you can also email clp@birdlife.org o Select your team members and topic o Check if your country is eligible for the Award.
o You meet the criteria outlined in the Team section of the guidelines?
o You meet the criteria outlined in the Project section of the guidelines?
o You meet the criteria outlined in the Consideration for successful projects of the guidelines?
o You have one or more advisors that agreed to support your project

Writing the application:

o For the Award criteria, read the Award Details on the online portal o For each section, read the guidelines before completing them o Read the instruction for each section of the application form o Fill in each section that relates to your project o Activities are detailed and link back to the results and the overall goal o Advisor agrees with the methods of the activities and the budget o The budget is detailed and justified o Contact a CLP Alumni reviewer between 7th of August and until the 23rd of September if you would like your application to receive feedback prior to submitting to the CLP portal.
o If something is unclear – contact clp@birdlife.org by 27th September 2024.

Submitting the application:

o All team members have read the application and approved it o The advisor(s) have read the application o The referees have agreed to give a reference when time come o A native English or fluent English speaker has reviewed your applications o All sections are pre-submitted and have changed from grey to a green colour.
o The application is submitted before or on the 18th of October 2024